This is a very family-oriented affair that offers attendees the chance to enjoy and celebrate Colombia's Independence with the rich musical and cultural heritage of this great Latin American Nation.

El Gran Festival Colombiano is an annual two-day family event, showcasing everything Colombian, culture, live entertainment, delicious regional food, family activities, and of course Colombian artisans.

World Famous Grammy Award winning Folk group, Los Gaiteros de San Jacinto will bring their powerful sounds of GAITAS and DRUMS directly from Colombia to headline Sunday, July 19th at Chicago's Colombian festival. Their participation in this festival is vital to the unique cultural perspective that we are seeking say founder Jorge L. Ortega.

Invited International Artists:

Celso Piña is a professional singer, composer, arranger, and accordionist mainly in the genre of cumbia from Monterrey, Mexico. Celso Piña is a pioneer in the mixture and fusion of tropical sounds with many of his works having elements of musica norteña, sonidero, ska, reggae, rap/hip-hop, R&B, etc. Piña is also known as El Rebelde del Acordeón or the Cacique de la Campana. Piña's group decided to change their musical rhythm to encompass a more tropical style during the mid-1980s after having seen Colombian Legends Aníbal Velásquez and Alfredo Gutiérrez in concert at "Baile de las Cintas (reproducción of música mediante cintas)".

LD Audio Inc. one of the largest sound reinforcement and production companies in the Midwest, based in Chicago. LD Audio Inc. together with Ortega have a combined 30 years of experience in producing, promoting, and operating large-scale events from concerts, festivals and marketing campaigns.
